

Machinist Training

at North Shore Community College's Danvers Campus/ETHS & LVTI

May 30, 2018—August 24, 2018 - Full Time Program

Become part of the TECHNOLOGY REVOLUTION!

Computer Numerical Control Training (CNC)

Earn a nationally-recognized certificate

Opportunities to work in exciting industries: aerospace, computer & electronic devices, defense, and medical device manufacturing.

Over 150 machining companies on the North Shore!

Median Salary $59,000

Entry Level salaries range from 30k-40k

85% job placement rate

- ☐ Receive 374 hours of training, employer tours and job readiness skills.
- ☐ Attend foundational classes at NSCC's Danvers Campus.
- ☐ Hands-on training at Essex Technical High School in Danvers (ETHS) OR Lynn Vocational Technical High School in Lynn (LVTI).

May 30-June 22 Foundational Studies M-F 9:00-4:00 NSCC/Danvers

June 25-August 24 Machinist Training M-F 7:00 -3:00 ETHS or LVTI

Come to an Information Session to learn more!

- ☐ 9 a.m. at the North Shore Career Center in Salem
- ☐ 3/7, 3/21, 3/28, & 4/4, 4/11, 4/18, 4/25
- ☐ Reserve a seat at the information session by calling 978 -825- 7200

Eligibility includes: Being an unemployed or underemployed worker, ages 17-29, must pass 8th grade math and reading tests and a MA CORI. Minimum of high school diploma, GED or HISET.

For more information contact:

Sandra Efstratiou: 978-825-7209

This program is sponsored by a grant from the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration through the Massachusetts Advanced Manufacturing TechHire Consortium (MassAMTC).